

Customer Advisory

September 21, 2016

Dear Valued Customer,

As you are aware, due to legal and financial constraints under Korean court receivership many service operations have been impacted and in many cases altered or even halted. For vessels which have been halted, we have exhausted all means to secure alternative options to complete final delivery to the final destination. To our sincere regret, we are unable to perform the intended delivery. Below is the list of halted vessels and their respective locations.
